BACK JACK 'THE ACTIVIST'S ACTIVIST'

About me

I learned my politics on the streets and doorsteps of Britain. I've represented ordinary people in the workplace, rooted in diverse communities, not in distant offices of power, but shoulder to shoulder with the army of volunteers who have built this party on dedication and effort.

I'm consistent - I've never wavered in my faith in our party as a radical, progressive social movement. I believe this is where the heart of the Liberal Democrat movement is. I feel we have been marshalled away from our core mission, and have become increasingly frustrated that all our concerns have been simply ignored.

I deliver results. Liberal Prime Minister David Lloyd George observed 'the greatest eloquence is that which gets things done.' This has been my touchstone since I first campaigned for this party. I respect doers, not talkers.

Restore

the national fortunes of the party

Renew

the hopes and self-belief of the members

Respect

the sovereign power of members over leadership

'The Liberal Democrats exist to build and safeguard a fair, free and open society, in which we seek to balance the fundamental values of liberty, equality and community and in which no one shall be enslaved by poverty ignorance or conformity'

Why I'm Standing

This is a crucial time for the party. There is so much to do in order to rebuild not only the party, but trust with the public, to reaffirm who we are and crucially, what we are for!

As Party President my duty won't be to function as a mouthpiece for the Party leadership: my DUTY is to do what's right for the membership and to be their voice to the leadership, and beyond. That is why I believe it is crucial this role is undertaken by an ordinary party member.

As President, I will dedicate myself to repairing and rebuilding the Liberal Democrats so that we can once again become a progressive, radical political movement which is again trusted by the public.

With your help I will Restore the national fortunes of the party, Renew the hopes and self-belief of the members, and Respect the sovereign power of members over leadership

LINDA JACK – MANAGING THE PARTY WITH YOUR PRIORITIES IN MIND

If elected Linda promises to work with you to:

Connect

The membership and the leadership by listening to both and ensuring we are all reminded of and connected to, our shared values. Being prepared to challenge in order to ensure that even if we are in government we continue to be a party of protest, being a voice for those without a voice, challenging the status quo, taking on vested interests wherever they occur

Campaign

Support our activists and the communities we seek to serve Through reinvigorating and reinventing community politics for 21st Century – training and supporting an army of volunteers to take the fight for liberal democracy back to the streets.

Change

Processes and structures that allow us to drift away from our core purpose, building consensus for reform of party structures, strategy and HQ operations.
